

IN SOCIETY

Only a few days intervene before Ash Wednesday, when fashion decrees that all amusements shall cease for a period of 40 days. And with the curtain so soon to fall on the winter's festivities the interest of the gay world is more centered in the discussion of plans for the Lenten days than in the few remaining entertainments.

The past week brought several delightful affairs, and there will be sufficient entertainment in the brief period remaining to engage the attention of the gay world until the season of fasting and prayer arrives.

The last brilliant affair of the winter season will be the large reception and dance to be given next Thursday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Jennings at Devereux House.

The same day will witness the inaugural exercises at Washington. In honor of the occasion the ball room will be elaborately decorated in the national colors.

The most elaborate affair of the week was the Washington Birthday card party given by Mr. and Mrs. Albert F. Holden on Monday evening. The house was decorated in American flags and cut flowers. After the guests had been received by the hostess they were conducted into the library where Miss Wallace had charge of an immense flag. To each star was fastened a tiny envelope, one being given to each guest, and in each envelope was found an article representing each state in the Union. After guessing the state to which they belonged the guests were then given a tally card in the shape of an American flag, the score of the games being kept by sticking small flags into the larger one. The game of "War" was played by the 21 guests present, and at the close of the evening prizes were given the successful contestants.

Mr. and Mrs. George Y. Wallace entertained at dinner last evening in honor of Colonel and Mrs. Kent of Fort Douglas. The table was profusely decorated in jacquards and violets, and the guests were Colonel and Mrs. Kent, Miss Kent, Major and Mrs. Downey, Miss Wallace, Mr. George Downey and Mrs. Holden.

The reception given Thursday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Caine in honor of Senator-elect and Mrs. Joseph Rawlins was a handsome affair and was participated in by nearly 200 guests representing the state officers, judges, officers of the National Guard and the members of the legislature. The home was artistically decorated throughout with Oriental hangings, which gave the room a unique and pleasing appearance.

Throughout the hall were placed divans with Oriental coverings. The stairs were twined with English ivy, while in the rear of the hall stood Mrs. Charles Caine, under a canopy formed of Egyptian draperies, serving punch. In the front of the hall the guests were received by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Caine, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Rawlins. The walls of the room were hung with handsome rugs and draperies and the mantle was banked with palms and cut flowers.

The decorations in the dining room were in pink carnations and it was presided over by Mrs. D. C. Dunbar, Mrs. Willard Young, Miss Hooper, Miss Tensel and Miss Caine.

In the upper hall a stringed orchestra, which rendered a pleasing programme of concert music, was stationed throughout the evening.

Mrs. Harkness entertained the "63" Card club Tuesday evening.

Fanny Davenport, whose name has long been a synonym for first-class dramatic productions, will be seen the coming week at the Salt Lake theater in revivals of "Fedora" and "La Tosca" on Monday and Tuesday nights, and on Wednesday, Thursday, Friday nights and Saturday matinee will introduce to the public Sardou's latest play, "Gismonda." New York, Paris and London papers credit this play with a success in advance of anything this author has ever done. The piece admits of such extensive and magnificent scenic elaboration and so many of the scenes require such skillful and accurate adjustment that Miss Davenport has found it necessary in most places to close the theater a day to insure a smooth performance the opening night. For here, however, she has arranged so that the three baggage cars with "Gismonda" effects will arrive Saturday night to obviate the closing of the theater during her coming week. Miss Davenport is particularly fitted to be the American exponent of Sardou's heroine, from the fact that she has brought out a number of the author's works and enjoyed a full measure of success in each. In fact, there is no other actress at present on the American stage who is able to portray these roles as written by Sardou. Monday and Tuesday nights Davenport-Sardou silver souvenirs will be presented to every lady on the lower floor.

Mrs. George Y. Wallace entertained the Friday Afternoon club.

Dr. and Mrs. Samuel Hughes entertained Friday evening at German whist. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Casper L. Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. Hayward, Mr. and Mrs. William Reid, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Walker, Mr. Charles Reed, Miss Kimball, Miss Hansen, Miss Ida Hansen, Miss Shearman, Miss Edna Shearman, Mr. Max Hansen, Mr. Hanelton and Dr. Bascom. Prizes were won by Miss Shearman, Mrs. Walker and Mr. Hayward.

The Musical club met at the home of Miss Flinders last evening.

Mr. Schramm spent Thursday in Ogden.

Mr. Will Dinwoodey left yesterday on a business trip to southern Utah.

Mrs. Will Sprague was the hostess of a very pretty afternoon tea on Thursday. The guest of honor was her mother, Mrs. Witter of Denver. The home was beautifully decorated in violets, carnations and ferns. Among those present were Mrs. Harkness, Miss Harkness, Mrs. David Sharp, Mrs. Sprague, Miss Sprague, Mrs. Justice, Mrs. Thomas Carter.

Miss Harkness returned Thursday from St. Louis.

Mrs. G. B. Wilkes entertained at luncheon Thursday afternoon in honor of the Episcopal clergy and their wives.

Mr. D. E. Burley left last evening for Chicago.

Mrs. Samuel Hughes entertained at cards Thursday evening.

The officers and ladies of the fort gave an informal hop Friday evening. A number of young people from the city were in attendance.

Mr. F. C. Schramm entertained a few friends at luncheon yesterday at the Woman's Exchange. The table was elaborately decorated in jonquils and violets, and the affair was chaperoned by Mrs. William Reid.

Mrs. Witter of Denver was the guest of Mrs. Justice during the week.

Miss Maude Walker and Miss Stella Walker are visiting friends in Oakland.

Miss Lucille Taylor entertained delightfully on Thursday night at the John Clark residence on First street. A despatch card party was the attraction. A large company of Miss Taylor's friends were present, and the evening was most agreeably spent.

Among the guests were: Misses Cathie Culmer, Selma Hyman, Laura Bird, Mamie Sharp, Minnie James, Lucille Jennings, Leda Rawlins, Elsie Cohen, Evaline Thomas, Wendell Benson, Margaret Young, Marge Ellersbeck, Charlotte Thatcher, Messrs. Vaughn Clark, Arthur Thomas, Led Freedson, Walter Shaugnessy, Ellis Philoed, Lee Dinwoodey, Wesley Clawson, Art Culmer, R. Romney, D. Ritter, Frank Young, Herman Schettler, George Goddard, Hugo Wells.

Miss Thorne gave a Welsh rabbit party during the week.

Miss Bertha Taylor entertained at cards Thursday night. There were five tables, each decorated in the national colors. "Sixty-three" was the game enjoyed by the guests and at its conclusion prizes were awarded Miss Edna Shearman and Mr. Knapp.

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Gries have returned from their wedding tour to the east and are at home to their friends at the Way hotel.

Mrs. Willard Young gave a high tea Tuesday afternoon. The guests were Mrs. T. G. Webster, Mrs. Barrett, Mrs. C. A. Eldredge, Mrs. Henry Richards, Mrs. Amelia Young, Mrs. Lizzie Young, Mrs. James Dwyer, Mrs. Zina Young and Mrs. Sophia Sharp.

Mrs. George Fenton has returned from Omaha.

Mrs. Hollingsworth McLeod will be the guest of honor at the reception to be given tomorrow evening by Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Tren.

Mrs. Kenneth Kerr will entertain the German club tomorrow evening.

The M. O. O. D. will give no entertainments during Lent.

There will be many theater parties given during the Davenport engagement at the theater this week. On Wednesday evening the members of the Bicycle Club will occupy stalls. At the close of the performance the gentlemen of the club will give a supper.

The French club met Wednesday with Mrs. Ira Lewis.

Miss Blanche Kimball entertained the Neighborhood Club club Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelden informally entertained at cards on Thursday evening.

The members of St. Paul's Guild gave a Kensington tea Tuesday. The proceeds were given to St. Mark's hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Moritz gave a high five party Thursday evening. There were six tables, each beautifully decorated in violets and ferns. Mrs. Samuel Weitz, Mr. Jacob Hammer, Mrs. Butler and Mr. Samuel Kenyon each won handsome prizes.

Women of fashion will read with pleasure the "Herald" has entered into a contract with an eastern publishing house for a series of carefully illustrated articles accurately describing the coming styles in women's costumes as designed and modeled by Europe's leading masters of fashion, among whom her Felix of Paris and Drecol of Vienna. These will be the first authentic descriptions ever presented in this country in advance of their publication abroad.

The engagement announced of the popular singer, Miss Maude Pratt, and Mr. James F. Griggs. The marriage will take place in April.

The annual St. Patrick's day entertainment for the benefit of St. Ann's orphanage will be given in the Salt Lake theater. The programme will consist of vocal and instrumental music, and a lecture on "The Irish in America," by P. McGuire of Washington. Some of Salt Lake's best musical talent have volunteered their services for the orphans of St. Ann's.

Mrs. G. H. Gundy entertained in honor of her daughter Annie at her home in Burlington on Tuesday evening. Those present were Miss Esther McDonald, Miss Zina Holding, Miss Sadie Mower, Miss Sadie Bean, Miss Eleanor Holding, Miss Nerva Hendrickson, Miss May Taylor, Miss Jean Hendrickson, Mr. Golden Guiver, Mr. David Eaton, Mr. James Woodward, Mr. Bert Hendrickson.

One of the leading social events of the week was the "Current Events" society given by the Christian Endeavor society of the First Presbyterian church last Monday evening. The church parlors were handsomely decorated with national colors for the occasion.

The Young Men's Mandolin and Guitar club rendered sweet strains of music during the evening, and there were also clever impersonations of different characters, chief among them being George and Martha Washington. Mr. and Mrs. Mark Hanna, and Mr. and Mrs. McKinley.

Miss Ella McDonald gave a dancing party Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John McDonald. The evening was most enjoyably spent by Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Margetta, Mr. and Mrs. Woodruff, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Margetta, Mr. and Mrs. June McDonald, Miss Hyde, Miss Edna Dwyer, Miss Cannon, Miss Cartwright, Miss Weller, Miss Silverwood, Miss Taylor, Miss Thomas, Miss Miner, Miss Shearman, Miss Yodanis, Miss Cannon, Miss Smith, Mr. Derrick, Mr. Thomas, Mr. Schettler, Mr. Wells, Mr. Kessler, Mr. Hillis, Mr. Silverwood, Mr. Dougall and Mr. Cannon.

The marriage of Miss Carrie Tomlinson and Mr. Robert H. Walker was solemnized on Washington's birthday at the home of the bride's parents, 275 Paxton avenue.

The ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock by the Rev. B. F. Clay of the Central Christian church.

The bride and groom received the congratulations of their friends while standing under an archway of emilax and white carnations from the center of which was suspended a large wedding bell.

The bride wore a heavy white silk train, with trimmings of lace and orange.

The maid of honor, Miss Lola Tomlinson, wore white muslin draped with pale blue and trimmed in forget-me-nots. After the reception Mr. and Mrs. Walker left for California, where they will remain a month.

The members of the B. F. Piexotto lodge No. 421, I. O. G. B., gave a banquet Wednesday evening in honor of Mr. L. E. Boukofsaky, who departs shortly for New York City to engage in business. The affair took place at the St. James, where a delicious repast was served by Mrs. Greenwald.

President T. M. Solomon acted as toastmaster, and all present offered wishes to the guest of honor success in his new venture. Those present were Mr. S. M. Solomon, Dr. T. Meyer, Mr. A. Graupe, Mr. William Graupe, Mr. A. L. Jacobs, Mr. Hirschman, Mr. O. Lehman, Mr. William Symons, Mr. A. Simon, Mr. L. E. Kahn, Mr. Friedman, Mr. Krotki and Mr. William Walters.

The ladies of the First M. E. church gave a social Tuesday evening for the benefit of the church.

The entertainment given by the mounted service of the National Guard was an enjoyable affair. Besides the members of the guard there were present the officers of the Twenty-fourth and Governor Heber M. Wells.

The Theosophical crusaders will hold a big meeting at the Lyceum Wednesday night. Dr. Tingley, the head of the society, will give an address as will also other prominent members. The musical part of the programme will be furnished by Professor Pedersen and Miss Morris.

CUSSING CLEVELAND.

This Seems to Be the Most Important Business Before Many Legislators.

Lincoln, Neb., Feb. 27.—Both houses of the legislature have adopted resolutions protesting against the proclamation of President Cleveland, reserving large tracts of land as forest reservations. The resolutions say:

"Resolved, That we urge upon the congress of the United States immediate legislation annulling said executive order and taking of the needed action; that the important industries already established may continue and receive the fostering care of the law instead of being destroyed by it.

"Resolved, That the secretary of state be requested to transmit these resolutions by telegraph to our senators and representatives in congress."

Daughters of the Revolution.

Washington, Feb. 27.—The Daughters of the American Revolution began their last day's work with but a slight attendance. The election of state regents was announced.

The congress adjourned sine die tonight with a good deal of unfinished business, which will be taken care of by the board of management.

WOMAN'S CLUB.

The programme at the Woman's club last Tuesday was "Current Events," with Miss S. L. Monroe as leader. The first topic brought out a very general, free and lively discussion, not so much on the topic itself—"Is Woman an Organized Obstruction?"—as upon kindred matters it suggested. Perhaps the feeling was that if woman must be looked upon as an obstruction, she may—at least, for some time yet—be spared the adjective "organized."

Other subjects and discussions followed, each member presenting her topic in response to her name.

The time for the next meeting has been changed to Monday, March 15. The programme will be furnished by Mrs. M. E. Gilmer, the subject being "Alexander Hamilton."

NINETEENTH CENTURY CLUB, PROVO.

The club met on Friday afternoon at the usual hour, at the home of Mrs. Wedgewood. Miss Webster conducted the parliamentary drill, illustrating "The Withdrawal of Motions." The question "What shall we do with the proceeds from the Shakespearean lecture?" was discussed. It was decided to purchase a set of E. C. Steadman's "Library of American Literature."

After recess 13 members responded to roll call, each with a quotation, and the programme for the afternoon followed. Mrs. Jensen reviewed the play, "Homes and Juliet," first giving a brief history of the play. Miss Brown read an interesting and original paper on the heroine of the play.

For the next meeting a special programme has been prepared, it being the sixth anniversary of the club, and Mrs. W. C. Jennings, president of the Utah Federation of Women's Clubs, will be present on this occasion.
